The table is a schedule of courses for the Physics Department. The courses are divided into three semesters (A, B, and C) and each semester has a specific set of courses. The table also includes the number of hours for each course and the total number of hours for the entire program. The table is written in Hebrew and includes the course codes and titles. The table is presented in a clear and organized manner, making it easy to understand the course requirements for the program.